

Marsh Bellofram

Marsh Instrument Company was established in 1865 in Skokie, Illinois, as the James P. Marsh Company. Marsh was acquired in 1988 by Desco and relocated to Hastings, Nebraska to share operations with Desco's Marshalltown Instruments. Marshalltown had been founded in 1918 in Marshalltown, Iowa. The two gauge and thermometer product lines were consolidated by November, 1993 into a Marsh/Marshalltown product line.
