

Merit Brass

Founding our business model on integrity, industry-wide respect, impeccable service standards, the highest quality products nationwide and beneficial partnerships, we, Merit Brass, continue to uphold these values now and throughout the future. Today, we are committed to maintaining & upholding Merit's legacy of providing quality products & services to our customers with dedication and passion. Our reputation as a highly respected manufacturer of pipe nipples and a master-distributor of related fittings, flanges, pipe, tubing, tape and valves continues now through the leadership of Lou Schlessinger's grandsons, Marc Schlessinger and Alan Lipp.
