

Seko

SEKO is a world-renowned manufacturer of dosing pumps and metering systems with over 40 years' experience. From systems designed to deliver hygiene and surface cleaning to treatment of water for human consumption, or for use in cooling towers, swimming pools and in myriad industrial processes, SEKO delivers solutions tailored to meet any given need thanks to its specialization in the design and manufacture of solenoid and motor driven dosing pumps, along with measurement and analysis systems.